

BAUER Spezialtiefbau GmbH is an international construction service provider whose primary focus is on complex specialist foundation engineering work in difficult ground conditions. BAUER Hungary is a subsidiary of the BAUER Group which has about 12,000 employees worldwide and generates total Group revenues of EUR 1.7 billion.

Interested?

Then please use our online application with the reference number 3315 at www.bauer.de

Your contact:

Simone Roßbach
+49(8252)97-3825

For a special foundation project in Paks of our Hungarian subsidiary BAUER Magyarország Speciális Mélyépítő Kft. we are looking for a committed and passionate

Site Engineer (m/f/x) (reference number 3315)

Your tasks

- Management of a certain construction section on our deep foundation jobsite according to our standards
- Leading, coordination and executing this segment from a technical, techno-commercial and organizational point of view
- Reporting to the project management, liaise with other teams like commercial, workshop, operations, quality and HSE, supervise and lead the staff assigned to you
- Troubleshooting and inspections where required and ensuring the performance of construction works on time and within budget
- Focusing on comprehensive and good work preparation in coordination with the relevant team and monitor performance if in accordance to plans, specifications, standards, schedule and work instructions

Your profile

- 1-2 years construction experience as a site manager would be an advantage
- Civil engineer studies background
- Flexible and hands-on attitude
- Ability to work independently and in teams of international composition
- Ability to communicate fluent in English, both oral and written, Hungarian is a plus

We offer you

- High freedom of decision and organization
- International project team
- Flat hierarchies and quick decision processes