We use machine learning to drive growth and enhance customer service.

What progress will you make?

And technology is taking us further than ever before. We are accelerating the design and delivery of digital solutions that transform global finance, anticipate consumer trends and strengthen our cyber security defenses. FinTech is key to Citi making the right decisions at the right time - for clients, for employees, and for the business.

TECHNOLOGY OPPORTUNITIES

Our team sees Citi as a technology company with a banking license. And it's no wonder, when their work involves robotics, AI, biometrics, virtual reality, and new trading platforms. Join us and you will hone your agile development skills, program in the latest languages, develop a “cloud-first” mentality, and ultimately help maintain a network that moves trillions of dollars a day.

Join Citi and develop skills for global leadership with training and experiential learning opportunities in an inclusive culture of fairness.
