Course name: Building Law and Administration
Course code: YAWBLAAMNF
Hours per week: 2 lecture / 0 practice / 0 laboratory; E: exam / 2 credits
Department of the Built Environment
In charge: Dr. Zsuzsanna Putnoki
For students of MSc in Architecture
Pre-requirements for Erasmus students: none

OBJECTIVE OF THE COURSE:

The general aim is to provide the students with some basic knowledge of building law and administration. The curriculum includes the foundations of civil law and public administration, the legal concept of real estate, the players of the development process, and the role and place of public administration. There is a special attention to information on statutory administration procedures and services through practical examples and exercises.

14 WEEKS SCHEDULE:

1. week: Introduction of public administration. Basic properties and roles of public administration. System of national's legislation worldwide, regional (EU) and the hungarian example.

2. week: International and regional legislation. Differences, opportunities. Types of international organizatons and forms. Authorities in international/reginal/national level. Environmental legislation basics in international level.

3. week: Basics of EU. History and enlargements. Treaties. Custom union and four freedom.

4. week: Basics of EU II. Legislation system in EU. Primary and secondary legislation. How EU works.

5. week: Basics of EU III. EU's bodies. Institutions I.

6. week: Basics of EU IV. Institutions II.

7. week: Introduction of environmental legislation and public administration. UN, EU

8. week: Sustainability. Limits to Growth.

9. week: Climate Change. International level.

10. week: Climate Change II. regional (EU) level.

11. week: Waste. Definition, problems. Waste and hazardous waste policy in EU.

12. week: Water. Definition, problems, EU's water policy.

13. week: Hazardous materials, chemicals. Definition, problems. SEVESO rules.

14. week: test

Assessment:
Successful pre-exam or exam.