

Course name: Complex Specialization (Urban Planning and Design)

Course code: YAWCSPUMNF

Hours per week: 0 lecture / 6 practice / 0 laboratory; F: Final Mark / 10 credits

Department of the Built Environment

In charge: Ass. Prof. Aurél Benárd DLA

For students of MSc in Architecture

Pre-requirements for Erasmus students: 2 semesters Architectural Design and 1 semester Urban Design

OBJECTIVE OF THE COURSE:

The semester task aims to develop more professional skills in urban context while analyzing, preserving, and revitalizing a chosen site in Budapest where the focus will be on the main factors of urban design: Topography, Landscape, and Environment.

14 WEEKS SCHEDULE:

1. week Lecture about urban design and principles of shaping and order / Introduction of the semester assignment and site / Visiting the site with the group
2. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment / Inspiring Urban Design Project
3. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
4. week Site analysis and assessment
5. week Typologies of residential, business, cultural blocks.
Formation of spaces for pedestrians, parks, roads and parking lots / Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
6. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
7. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
8. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
9. week Concept / Idea / Conceptual Urban Design proposal
10. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
11. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
12. week Studio Consultation for the semester assignment
13. week Final Urban Design project presentation and submission

Assessment:

First-term, Mid-term and Final project assignment in front of a jury. Each presentation will be graded with points, and all these points will be added together + participation in studio sessions and give the final grade after the Final assignment.